NAVY FINDS GOOD MEN.

Richardson and Burg Most Promising Football Players. Special to The Washington Herald.

Annapolis, Md., Oct. 19 .- The Navy football team will to-morrow afternoon play the eleven of Lehigh University. The middy aggregation has been making rapid improvement in play and expect to trim the Bethlehem lads.

The middy regulars have not only been improving in their work, but several new men have been showing up strong, so that now there is more good material available than a week or so ago. Chief ong the new men is Richardson, "plebe" from Tennessee, who has beer playing at full back. Richardson is strongly built lad, weighs 165 pounds, and is a hard line plunger, one of his principal qualifications being to keep on his

Burg, a sub of last year, is also improving. He is light, but a very fast man, and has been playing half back. He is particularly good in running with the ball after receiving a kick.

The Yale ceaches have been working on defense. Penn State is expected to give the Blue its hardest battle to date in the meeting to-morow. The Pennsylvanians have beaten the Indians 4 to 0 There is joy at Princeton because S. Rulon Miller has come out to make the eleven. Two years ago he was one of the best full backs in moleskins, but had to give up the game temporarily because of injuries received in gridiron conflict. He was not in a game last season. Mc-Cormick, who has been playing full back, will cover one of the half back positions. Head Coach Lindgren, of Illinois, will ave the assistance of Jake Stahl and

The appearance of the old-timers will be extremely welcome, and it is believed that Illinois' chances will be greatly improved. Of a group of twenty football teams in the East, nine have not been scored on, Those with clean slates are Yale, Princeton, Pennsylvania State, Dartmouth, Lafayette, Brown, West Point, Swarthmore, and Virginia. Teams that have made over 100 points in combined games against opponents are Yale, Princeton, Carlisle, Syracuse, Lafayette, and Virginia. The Pennsylvania team has been scored on in four out of its five games and its opponents have made more points than have been made against any other big team.
